89TH BIRTHDAY CELEBRATION AT BACON EXPO

AMES, IOWA – The 2015 Iowa State Bacon Expo is to be held from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. on Oct. 10, in the Hansen Agriculture Student Learning Center south of campus. The event plans to have 15 vendors in attendance serving a variety of different types of bacon and bacon-inspired creations.

Bacon Expo is also a great place to celebrate an 89th birthday, according to Phyllis Arlene Fevold. Her family is bringing her to the Bacon Expo and celebrating 89 years of bacon-eating on Oct. 10. This will be her first bacon-inspired event she's ever attended.

The Humboldt native was one of nine children and raised nine children herself. Phyllis is said to be a great cook and is famous for her hot German potato salad, which, of course, includes bacon.

With 24 grandchildren and 13 great-grand children this birthday gal may be tough to please, but Bacon Expo is prepared and up for the challenge to present the best bacon the 89 year-old has ever tasted.

To attend the Iowa State Bacon Expo, tickets are sold at baconexpo.ag.iastate.edu or at the door on Saturday, Oct. 10.
